Salisbury Middle School

Anticipated Special Education Teacher - Autistic Support

Salisbury Township School District has an opening for an anticipated Middle School Special Education teacher for an Autistic Support classroom. This is a full-time, contracted position with the start of the 2025-2026 school year. The ideal candidate will possess the knowledge and expertise to support students on the spectrum, parents, and teachers. Must be knowledgeable to implement strategies to enable students with special needs to be successful. The candidate's philosophy is that all children can learn and grow with appropriate support. The Special Education teacher provides direct instruction to students; collaborates with general education teachers; develops accommodations and modifications of curriculum, instruction and environment; aligns instruction with core standards; writes and implements individualized education plans (IEP's) and positive behavior support plans, conducts IEP team meetings, monitors and documents student progress, participates in professional development; contributes to the professional development of others; and maintains positive interpersonal relationships with all stakeholders. The ideal candidate will employ a variety of educational techniques and approaches to further develop academic, behavioral, social and verbal skills of the students in the program. Knowledge of Applied Behavioral Analysis (ABA), a verbal behavior approach, Functional Behavioral Assessment (FBA), Verbal Behavior Milestones Assessment and Placement Program (VB-MAPP), Errorless Teaching, Natural Environment Teaching, Augmentative Systems of Communication and Assistive Technology, and Sensory Strategies would be beneficial. Appropriate PDE certification is required.

Competitive healthcare benefits including medical insurance, prescription, dental, retirement through PSERS, and paid sick/personal/emergency days.
