

POSTING FOR ANTICIPATED SPECIAL EDUCATION TEACHER POSITION

The Northern Cambria School District is accepting applications for an Anticipated Special Education position beginning the November 2022 School Year. The initial assignment will be in the Elementary School. Special Education Certification PK-8, N-12; K-12 will be considered as required by the Pennsylvania Department of Education.

Functions and Duties

- Supervise and educate students in the class
- Develop and maintain a system of record keeping for students in the special education program
- Participate in the development of individual education programs for exceptional children
- Implement the individual education educational programs for exceptional students
- Maintain communication with the district staff and parents of exceptional children
- Supervise teacher aides assigned to the class
- Assist in the evaluation of the educational progress of exceptional students
- Contribute to the evaluation of the total program for exceptional students
- Participate as a team member to periodically review the educational progress of exceptional children
- Maintain a safe and educationally sound environment
- Other assignments as made by administrators
- Provide support to Exceptional Students in regular classes
- Provide support to regular class teachers

Mental Demands

Must be able to interpret, analyze and problem solve. Must be able to converse and interact with individuals with diverse levels of education and abilities. Must be able to read and understand documents relating to federal, state and local mandates as well as complex documents relating to education.

Interested candidates should send PA Standard Application, Letter of Interest, Resume, Transcripts, PA Certificate, 3 Letters of Recommendation, Acts 24, 34, 114, 151 and 168 Clearances to:

Dr. Laura Fisanick
601 Joseph Street
Northern Cambria, PA 15714
EOE

POSTED: September 20, 2022
EXPIRES: October 3, 2022(or until filled)