

GOVERNOR TOM WOLF

UPDATES

- Through federal funding, uninsured Pennsylvanians will be able to receive COVID-19 tests.
- This week, Governor Wolf amended the business guidance to allow real estate to resume limited business transactions statewide.
- Many older homeowners, renters, and people with disabilities will receive early rebates through the Property Tax/Rent Rebate Program.
- The Pandemic Emergency Unemployment Compensation \(PEUC\) program has launched for Pennsylvanians who have exhausted their regular unemployment benefits.
- More state park and forest facilities will join a phased reopening process.
- The Farmers to Families Food Box program has received new funding to get food boxes to families who are facing food insecurity.

THIS WEEK IN PENNSYLVANIA

- Tomorrow is Pennsylvania's day of kindness, 143 Day. Do something nice for an essential worker in honor of Pittsburgh native Mister Rogers.

- Pennsylvania Amish and Mennonite families donated thousands of masks to a children's hospital.
- Looking for a social distancing friendly activity that also helps Pennsylvania agriculture? Hunt and destroy spotted lanternflies.

COVID-19 RESOURCES

-  Find food assistance resources near you.
-  Mental health and substance use disorder help is available.
-  If you are unable to work due to COVID-19, you may be eligible for unemployment benefits.
-  Sign up for a mail ballot to vote from home in the June 2nd primary election.
-  Learn more about COVID-19 testing and find a testing center.
-  See the latest COVID-19 guidance on the Stay at Home order and phased reopening.
-  Find COVID-19 resources and guidance for Pennsylvania drivers.