

Chief Academic Officer K-12

Mifflin County School District

Situated in rural Central Pennsylvania, 30 miles east of State College, the Mifflin County School District has an opening for the position of Chief Academic Officer K-12 with the start date of July 1, 2022, or sooner. This is a cabinet-level position within the central office administration. The District is comprised of approximately 4,800 students grades K-12, with approximately 650 full-time employees.

Salary will be regionally competitive and will be negotiable, contingent on the candidate's experience and ability to meet board qualifications.

Minimum Requirements:

- Having a superintendent's letter of eligibility
- Understanding and experience in the development of curriculum
- Understanding and experience working with various assessments
- Understanding of planning, facilitating and delivering quality professional development
- Understanding and experience in data-driven decision-making and leadership

A detailed job description for the position of Chief Academic Officer K-12 may be requested by emailing Vance S. Varner, Superintendent at ysv55@mcsdk12.org

Please apply online at www.mcsdk12.org under the Employment Opportunities link. No paper applications will be accepted and incomplete online applications will not be considered.

Applications must be received before 12:00 p.m. on Monday, March 21, 2022.

Acts 34, 151, 168, and 114 clearances and a school health record with a TB test are required. Mifflin County School District is a Drug Free Workplace.

EOE