

PIPER | SANDLER

Piper Sandler & Co. is proud to announce our support for PARSS and all of its Members

We provide in depth, school district specific financing solutions based on experience that spans over multiple decades.

We offer assistance to our school district clients as a bond underwriter or municipal advisor. In either capacity, we serve by developing a financial plan including the structure, timing, and all matters related to a capital project or refinancing of existing debt service. Our services include: coordinating the entire financing team, attending meetings as requested, document review and preparation, assistance with Department of Education filings and other regulatory proceedings.

What you can expect from us

- A professional team located in the heart of Pennsylvania with extensive Pennsylvania School District specific financing experience.
- Up-to-date knowledge of school district financings and regulatory requirements.
- Invested interest in your school district's financial success.
- Expert analysis of possible capital plans as well as ongoing debt monitoring.
- On-point and candid conversations regarding your school district's specific financing needs; board and administration support and training as needed, board meeting presentations, etc.
- We will become a key member of the school district's financing team and strive to build deep rooted relationships with not only your administration team but your community
- You can expect our team to guide you throughout the financing process every step of the way.

Our focus is to help you in every situation, whether that is maintaining your current financial position or working on improving and expanding the horizon of resources offered to your students.
