

LOWER DAUPHIN SCHOOL DISTRICT

SUPERINTENDENT SEARCH

Seeking a Superintendent with strong communication skills, a commitment to the achievement and wellbeing of students, and a culture of accountability, requiring high standards for self and others.

Lower Dauphin School District Profile

The Lower Dauphin School District serves five municipalities, the Borough of Hummelstown and Townships of Conewago, East Hanover, Londonderry, and South Hanover, spanning 90 square miles with a population of 25,623 residents. The district includes five neighborhood elementary schools (K–5), a middle school (grades 6–8), and a high school (grades 9–12), with approximately 3,500 students enrolled across these schools and the Dauphin County Technical School. Education is facilitated by a dedicated team of 500 educational professionals and support staff. With a long-standing tradition of excellence, Lower Dauphin students distinguish themselves as scholars, artists, athletes, musicians, and engaged citizens.

Superintendent Profile

The next superintendent must embody and promote the District’s enduring spirit of “Falcon Pride” and strong community support, fostering a safe and nurturing environment where students can thrive and receive a high-quality education that prepares them for future success. The successful candidate will be expected to address key challenges facing the District, including rising operational costs, potential tax increases, facility projects, staff cohesion, curriculum enhancements, stakeholder engagement, and sustained commitment to leadership stability. The Board of Directors seeks an experienced, visionary leader who is dedicated to a minimum of five years of service, is visible in the District and community, and is capable of building on the District’s current positive momentum.
